

Wk 12:Reflection

- What topics were studied this week, and what are their definitions? +5

This week we talked about Loyalty. Loyalty is how willing a person is willing to stick with a company or a company is willing to stick with a person.

- What did I do to prepare for class this week? +5

Read about how job loyalty is dead and its better that way. Read the talk "Loyalty" by Gordon B. Hinckley. Read the summary about Faye Navarro.

- Summarize this week's scenario? +5

Faye overheard her coworker talking about firing her. She was later promoted for her upstanding ability to really grasp what was at stake and how to help the company.

What did I learn from the study material +5?

Loyalty is about being true to yourself. When you are true to ourselves we can move forward confidently and with purpose.

- Why is this week's topic important? +5

It's always important to be loyal. Like I said when your loyal to yourself you can be confident in what you are doing. There is also loyalty to each other and loyalty to God as well. We need to be loyal to others to gain trust and many other things.

- How did this week scenario relate to the week's topic? +5

Faye was loyal to what she believed and what she thought was best for the company. This helped her keep people on track even though their ideas and desires were good they were unsafe in how they tried to implement it.

- How would you explain this week's topics to a person not in this class? +10

Loyalty is about understanding what you stand for and sticking to it and understanding what your Job or someone you know is asking of you and you upholding it. When you are loyal you are doing what you are asked because you understand it to be the right choice.

- What is the most significant take-a-way you have gained from your study this week? What do you do, steps, or processes related to this week's topic? +20

We talked about this in class but a good length of time to be in a Job is about 3 to 8 years. Three if you are not really liking the job and want to move on and 8 eight if you are really liking it there. It's not really something I can do now but I have a plan in mind to try and keep to this mindset when I do get a job.

- Why is this week's topic important for teamwork? +20

Teams fall apart if there is no loyalty in the team. Good loyalty as well, not cover for problems in the team. Loyalty is doing the right thing and understanding why you do it. When you can have a good sense of loyalty in your team then you can trust each other and work together. Loyalty is important.

- If this was a religion class, how would you relate this week's topic to the gospel? +20

Well, we have prophets that are loyal to Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ and the prophets teach us how to be loyal to our Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ who were loyal to us first. Loyal in trying to fulfill the plan that was set forth for us to follow. That is just one example. I can also think of loyalty in families, in the church with the leaders of the church like bishops and members. Lots of loyalty there when it comes to repentance and temple recommends and tithing and many others. Lots of places that loyalty is not only required but necessary to function.
